
Intern Recruitment: Procurement Management Unit

About us

UONGOZI Institute was established in 2010 by the Government of Tanzania to inspire and equip Tanzanian and African leaders to deliver inclusive and sustainable solutions. This is done through the provision of high-quality executive education, facilitation of policy dialogues, action-oriented research and technical assistance for public and private institutions.

The Procurement Management Unit (PMU) is an integral part of the Institute's operations. It is responsible for procuring items/resources to support the running of activities whilst ensuring integrity, fairness, openness and adherence to procurement policies and procedures.

Why join UONGOZI Institute?

The successful candidate will support the day-to-day operations of the Unit, reporting directly to the Procurement and Supplies Officer.

This role exposes fresh graduates to public procurement procedures and practices. The Procurement Intern will:

- Assist to prepare bidding documents.
- Assist to coordinate tender opening meetings and tender board meetings.
- Compile physical procurement records.
- Update stores ledger in the procurement system.
- Assist to prepare Local Purchase Orders (LPOs).
- Record supplier contracts in the internal contracts register.
- Update records for store transactions.
- Manage records of receiving and issuing goods.
- Support stocktaking, reconciliation and auditing assignments.
- Post payment vouchers to invoice ledger.

Duration and work schedule

The selected Intern will be provided with a three-month contract with the possibility of extension if necessary. Some assignments will require travelling.

Who are we looking for?

- Bachelor's degree in Procurement and Supplies or any other similar field.
- Registered with Procurement and Supplies Professionals and Technicians Board (PSPTB).
- Strong verbal and written communication skills, both in English and Swahili.
- Ability to multi-task in a fast-paced environment.
- Ability to work effectively both independently and as part of a team.
- Proficiency in MS-Word, Excel and internet search tools.
- Volunteer experience is preferred, although not required.
